

ACHR's Mission Statement

The Alabama Council on Human Relations, Inc., is a private, non-profit organization funded exclusively for educational and eleemosynary (charitable) purposes. The goal of ACHR is the promotion and implementation of programs that improve economic conditions, education and racial relationships for all people, resulting in increased self-sufficiency and overall improvement in their quality of life.

TABLE OF CONTENTS 2019

COVID-19 Crisis Information and Introduction	1
Education and School Readiness Philosophy	2
ACHR Child Guidance Based on Conscious Discipline	4
Basic Goals for School Readiness	5
Parents' Quick Reference Guide	6
ACHR Child Development Program - Parent Information	7
A. Rights of ACHR Parents	7
1. Treated with respect and dignity	7
2. Learn about child's interests, strengths, etc.	7
3. Understanding types of screenings and assessments used	7
4. Engage in programs to increase skills	8
5. Receive regular communications	8
6. Be a member of Center Committee	8
7. Serve on Policy Council if elected	9
8. Kept informed about Policy Council activities	9
9. Serve on advisory groups that plan services	9
10. Make suggestions or file a complaint	9
11. Read manuals that govern program operations	9
12. Visit the center when I want to - and volunteer	10
B. Responsibilities of ACHR Parents	10
1. Treat program staff and other parents with respect and dignity	10
2. Keep my contact information up-to-date at all times	10
3. Bring/pick-up child at agreed on time if transporting	11
4. Have my child at school every day unless child is sick	11
5. Follow the transportation rules when transporting child	11
6. Follow the transportation rules when bus transports	12
7. Dress my child appropriately for the center/change of clothes	14
8. Pick up my child as quickly as possible if sick/injured	14
9. Provide information for job/school verification	14
10. Report when my job/education status changes (EHS, childcare only)	14
11. Work with staff to resolve child's problems (behavior, etc.)	14
12. Attend Center Committee meetings	15
13. Serve on Policy Council, if elected	15
14. Communicate regularly with program staff	15
15. Help ACHR-CDP staff keep my child and other children safe	16
16. Help ACHR-CDP staff build children's self-esteem	17
C. Before and After School Care	18
1. Care available at Darden and Edelman	18
2. Care during Center Breaks for children enrolled in "wrap-around" care	18
3. Parents transport children in child care	18
4. Fees paid in full each week and cover only duration agreed on	18

D. Health and Medical Information	19
1. Illness	19
2. Immunizations	19
3. Well Child Checks or Physicals	19
4. Head Lice	20
5. Medication	20
6. Emergency Treatment	21
7. Medical Care	21
8. Medical-Other	22
9. Dental Care	22
E. Nutrition	23
1. Mealtimes	23
2. Food, including snacks, cannot go home with children	23
3. Infants and toddlers fed “on demand”	23
4. Allergies or other special food needs	23
5. Eating at the center with your child	23
6. Nutrition Education	23
USDA - required statement	23
F. Emergency Plans	24
1. Drills	24
2. At center in severe weather	24
3. At home in severe weather or when severe weather is expected	24
4. Center evacuation	24
5. Disruption in agency phone services – contact	24
G. Special Services	24
1. Children with special needs welcome	24
2. If you have concerns about your child’s development	24
3. Screenings	24
4. Plans for children with special needs (IFSPs and IEPs)	25
H. Other Program Information	25
1. Birthdays and Holiday Celebrations	25
2. Multicultural Activities	25
3. Importance of pre-school to children’s future learning	25
4. Sunshine Shop	26
5. In-Kind or Match	26
6. Enrollment	26
I. Child Custody - Enrolling Parent Information	27
1. Parent Responsibility	27
2. ACHR Responsibility	27

Appendix

A-1 School Readiness Goals - Head Start

A-2 School Readiness Goals - Early Head Start

A-3 Attendance Policy

A-4 Children's Jewelry, Hair Accessories and Footwear Policy

A-5 Camera Monitoring and Video/Audio Recording in the Centers Policy

A-6 ACHR Key Staff List

A-7 Authorization for Administering Medication (tear out and use, if necessary; see page 20 for requirements)

A-8 COVID19 CRISIS Information

Calendar – none in this year of uncertainty. Please watch for texts, and check Facebook, and achr.com.